

This book is dedicated to my daughter Janet,
and three sons, Jonathan, Joel and Jeffrey.
The following pages, apart from a few incidents of my early life, will deal with my experiences while serving in the United States Navy, aboard the battle ship, USS Idaho, during World War 11.
That time in my life I know I shall never forget.